Dear Honored Guest,

Each year, the Africana Studies Program hosts the Annual Dr. John T. Washington Community Service Awards and Scholarship Luncheon in order to recognize UCF students along with Community adults and youth who participate in community and civic programs in the Greater Central Florida area and have made outstanding contributions to our community.

Besides being one of the first African Americans to hold a faculty position at the University of Central Florida, Dr. Washington was a humanitarian and leader who not only taught a life of service, but also lived it. His sincerity and altruism had a profound impact on those with whom he had contact. The award honors his legacy by honoring people who exemplify the same humanitarian and scholarly characteristics that were so vividly demonstrated by Dr. Washington.

The program requests the honor of your presence at this year's luncheon. We also invite you to support this worthy cause by purchasing a Sponsorship Package or Program Advertisement, or by making a donation. Please read the enclosed form to learn more about these opportunities. Kindly RSVP by February 16, 2017. We thank you in advance for your prompt attention and consideration in this matter. The luncheon will be on Monday, February 27, 2017, at noon in the UCF Student Union Pegasus Ballroom.

You can also further support this program by distributing the application form to worthy candidates. Any individual who has served the African American community in Orange, Seminole, Osceola, or Brevard County is invited to submit the enclosed application. You may also nominate someone by completing the application on his or her behalf. We encourage you to duplicate this application as needed and distribute it to as many people as possible.

For additional information about the Dr. John T. Washington awards program and luncheon, please feel free to contact Mrs. Kakoli Ahmed at 407-823-6520 or kakoli.ahmed@ucf.edu

Thank you for your consideration. We look forward to seeing you in the spring.

Sincerely,
